PRESIDENT CASTRO REVIEWING THE TROOPS NEAR CARACAS.

Although European and Washington diplomats hold a different opinion, the President is regarded by the Venezuelans as a most able and patriotic man for his unwillingness to allow foreign claims to be met.

Renders Fine Program at Its Rooms on Sunday.

The concert given Sunday afternoon at Haalelea Lawn by the Honolulu Symphony Society marked a distinct progress in local musical entertainments, for not only was the program one of the best yet offered by the society, but the attendance of friends was larger than usual, including many ladies. Owing to inclement weather the society wals compelled to forego the idea of giving the concert in the open air beneath the great trees. Refreshments were served during the con-

The concert also marked the last appearance of Carl Busch as the able and talented leader of the orchestra, and the occasion was marked by the presentation to him of a beautiful lei of red and white carnations intertwined with maile and adorned with a beautiful ribbon bow of the German colors, given on behalf of the society. At the conclusion of the next to the last number Mr. Hillefeld came forward with the lei and placed it about Mr. Busch's neck. B. L. Marx arose and made a happy speech, stating that the decoration was in recognition of Mr. Busch's long and arduous labors as leader, services which he had willingly given to the society, during which time the society had made much progress. Mr. Busch was too overcome to reply, but bowed his thanks in a Chesterfieldan manner. The announcement was also made that Mr. Stockton, who was formerly Mary Carrillo and hsb to M Kahabandmaster of the U.S. S.
